IMMIGON PORTFOLIOABBAU AG (FORMERLY KNOWN AS ÖSTERREICHISCHE VOLKSBANKEN-AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT) ANNOUNCES AN INVITATION FOR OFFERS TO SELL FOR CASH CERTAIN OUTSTANDING INSTRUMENTS

immigon portfolioabbau ag (formerly known as Österreichische Volksbanken-Aktiengesellschaft) (the "Company") today announces its invitation to holders of the outstanding instruments set out and described in Annex A of this announcement (each a "Series" and together the "Instruments") to tender such Instruments for purchase by the Company for cash (each such invitation an "Offer" and, together, the "Offers"). The Offers are being made on the terms and subject to the conditions contained in the tender offer memorandum dated 7 September 2015 prepared by the Company (the "Tender Offer Memorandum"), and are subject to the offer and distribution restrictions set out below and as more fully described in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Copies of the Tender Offer Memorandum or related documents are (subject to the Offer and Distribution Restrictions) available from the Tender Agent as set out below. Capitalised terms used in this announcement but not defined have the meanings given to them in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

RATIONALE FOR THE OFFERS

The Company is a wind-down company pursuant to section 162 of the Austrian Federal Act on the Restructuring and Resolution of Banks (Bundesgesetz über die Sanierung und Abwicklung von Banken, the "BaSAG"). This follows the demerger and transfer of the functions of the legacy company (Österreichische Volksbanken-Aktiengesellschaft, "VBAG") as a central organisation and central institution of the association of Austrian Volksbanken (Volksbanken-Verbund) pursuant to section 30a of the Austrian Banking Act to Volksbank Wien-Baden AG. The demerger is the result of a reorganisation plan implemented by VBAG, with regulatory approval, and undertaken largely as a result of a comprehensive assessment carried out in 2014 that showed a large capital shortfall for future years and because it was believed that the conditions to ensure VBAG's continued existence as a bank were no longer in place. The demerger became effective on 4 July 2015, and involved the transformation of the Company from a bank into a pure wind-down entity pursuant to the BaSAG without a banking licence which aims to wind down its assets (including the repayment of liabilities) to a large extent by the end of 2017, and to ultimately implement the liquidation of the entity. As part of the demerger, all debt and equity instruments issued by VBAG (other than covered bonds) remained in the Company as a wind-up entity. The Offers, therefore, form part of the Company's strategy to wind-down its assets by the end of 2017. As part of this strategy, the Company also completed a buyback exercise in respect of certain of its debt instruments in August 2015, for a total consideration amount (including accrued interest) of approximately EUR 933 million.

THE OFFERS

Maximum Total Consideration Amount

The Company proposes to accept Instruments for purchase up to a maximum aggregate Tender Consideration and Accrued Interest Payment of EUR 400,000,000 (the "Maximum Total Consideration Amount") on the terms and subject to the conditions contained in the Tender Offer Memorandum. For the avoidance of doubt, the Maximum Total Consideration Amount shall be determined following the conversion into euros of any non-euro amounts at the relevant prevailing exchange rate, in each case at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company, including as to the timing of such conversion. The Company will determine the allocation of funds between each Series of Instruments in its sole and absolute discretion. In particular, but without limitation, the Company may exercise its discretion so as to obtain what it believes is the most economically advantageous result for its purposes. In respect of any Series, in the event that the aggregate principal amount of (or, in respect of Unit Instruments, aggregate amount of units comprised in) Tender Instructions results in more Instruments of the relevant Series being offered than any applicable Series Acceptance Amount, such Tender Instructions may be accepted on a pro rata basis. The Company reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to purchase more than the Maximum Total Consideration Amount, subject to applicable law.

Retail offers; Acceptance of Tender Instructions and pro-ration

The Offers are primarily targeted at retail investors and, therefore, in respect of the Instruments of each Series accepted for purchase by the Company pursuant to the Offers, the Company proposes to accept valid Tender Instructions for purchase in the following order:

- a) first, all validly submitted Priority 1 Tender Instructions, subject to possible pro-ration in the event that such Priority 1 Tender Instructions have been submitted with respect to a greater principal amount (or, in respect of Unit Instruments, unit value) than the Series Acceptance Amount (if any); and
- b) second, and to the extent the aggregate principal amount or unit value (as applicable) of Priority 1 Tender Instructions is not equal to or greater than the applicable Series Acceptance Amount (if any), all validly submitted Priority 2 Tender Instructions, subject to possible pro-ration in the event that such Priority 2 Tender Instructions, when aggregated with all Priority Tender 1 Instructions referred to at (a) above and accepted for purchase, results in a greater principal amount (or, in respect of Unit Instruments, unit value) than the Series Acceptance Amount (if any).

In respect of any Series:

- (i) save as provided in paragraph (ii) below, any Tender Instruction of up to (and including) EUR 250,000 in aggregate principal amount or unit value (as applicable) of the relevant Instruments (or its equivalent in any other currency applicable to such Instruments, determined at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company) shall be deemed to constitute a "Priority 1 Tender Instruction"; and
- (ii) any Tender Instruction of greater than EUR 250,000 in aggregate principal amount or unit value (as applicable) of the relevant Instruments (or its equivalent in any other currency applicable to such Instruments, determined at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company) shall be deemed to constitute a "Priority 2 Tender Instruction" unless such Holder has also separately provided the Company and the Tender Agent, by the Expiration Deadline, with written confirmation that it is, or is submitting such Tender Instruction(s) on behalf of, a retail investor or retail investor(s) (determination and acceptance of which is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company), in which case the Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion (including, but not limited to, its ability to require, and be satisfied with, such additional evidence as to such retail holding as it may feel necessary), deem such Tender Instruction to constitute a "Priority 1 Tender Instruction".

To the extent that the Company believes that a particular Tender Instruction has been submitted by, or on behalf of, an investor that is not a retail investor (as determined at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company), the Company may, at its sole and absolute discretion, elect to treat such Tender Instruction as a Priority 2 Tender Instruction or refuse to accept such Tender Instruction.

Tender Price

Subject to the applicable Minimum Denomination, the Tender Price (expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the relevant Instruments or, in respect of Unit Instruments, as an amount per unit in the relevant currency) for the Instruments of each Series will be as set out in the table in Annex A of this announcement.

Tender Instructions

The Company invites Holders (subject to the Offer and Distribution restrictions) to tender their Instruments for repurchase by the Company at the relevant Tender Price together with Accrued Interest. Instruments can only be tendered in the Offers in accordance with the procedures described in "Procedures for Participating in the Offers" in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

To tender Instruments in an Offer, a holder of Instruments should deliver, or arrange to have delivered on its behalf, via the relevant Clearing System and in accordance with the requirements of such Clearing System, a valid Tender Instruction that is received in each case by the Tender Agent by the Expiration Deadline.

Tender Instructions will be irrevocable except in the limited circumstances described in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Payment

If: (a) the Instruments validly tendered in an Offer are accepted for purchase by the Company and (b) the relevant Transaction Conditions are satisfied (or, if applicable, waived), the Tender Consideration, and Accrued Interest Payments for Instruments accepted for purchase pursuant to such Offer, in each case will be paid on the Settlement Date (subject to the right of the Company to delay the acceptance of Tender Instructions as set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum) in immediately available funds delivered to the Clearing Systems for payment to the cash accounts of the relevant Holders in the Clearing Systems. The deposit of such funds with the Clearing Systems will discharge the obligation of the Company to all Holders in respect of the above amounts represented by such funds.
